I am writing to you to tell you about a popular new certified organic pet food called Party Animal (www.partyanimalpetfood.com). My dogs love it and I would love to be able to buy it at your store. It is an organic product, made in the U.S.A., and it was never affected by any of the dry or canned pet food recalls. Please consider making this wonderful product available at your store. My pets would appreciate it!

Thank you for considering my request. I have included the company contact information for your convenience.

Best regards,
